

I would like to urge the FCC to avoid relaxation of rules regulating media ownership. Democracy is based on a free exchange of ideas, and easing of ownership regulations will hinder the democratic process.